

Family Promise

The United Women in Faith and Calvary's Mission Committee are overseeing our Family Promise partnership with Charlton UMC, but we are asking all Calvary members, friends, choirs, YAH Club, Youth, and Church Committees to provide prepared meals. You will cover the cost of the meals so we suggest you work in a team. As donations are received, there will be reimbursement as necessary.

Family Promise of Harrisburg Capital Region, located in Camp Hill, is a non-profit organization that helps families experiencing housing instability and homelessness stay together by providing temporary shelter, resources, and support to help them regain stability and secure long-term housing. They utilize a network of local faith communities, volunteers, and professional staff. Calvary provided meals to Charlton UMC for the families, the week of December 7, 2025.

We are now looking for meal providers on: February 8th, 9th, 11th, 12th, and 13th. Christ ELC provides the Tuesday meals. The meals are to be delivered to Charlton by 6:30 PM ready to eat, no drinks or desserts are necessary.

Please contact Susie Grubb at 717-512-5618 or grubbycdhs@yahoo.com, as soon as possible to take part in this worthwhile mission project.

Additional dates in 2026 are the weeks of May 10th, August 9th, and November 15th. If it is not possible to provide a meal in February but you could another month, reach out to Susie. If you would like to donate to Family Promise, write a check out to Calvary UMC, and put in the comment section "Family Promise."

Book Club

The Book Club at Calvary is meeting on the third Tuesday every other month, starting on January 20th at 1 PM. We will meet in Room 121. Our first book is one that has been banned from some school libraries- The Hate U Give by Angie Thomas. All are welcome! Sign up outside The Square.

ONE: Christ our Lord invites to His Table all who love Him, who earnestly confess their sin, and seek to live in peace with God and one another. Therefore, as a community of faith, let us confess our sins before God and one another.

MANY: Lord Jesus, you are the way of peace. Come into the brokenness of our lives and land with your healing love. Help us to bow before you in true repentance, and to one another in real forgiveness. By the fire of your Holy Spirit, melt our hard hearts and consume the pride and prejudice separating us. Fill us with your perfect love, which casts out fear. Bind us together in the witness of your love around the world, and in our neighborhood, as we come to your Table.

ONE: Hear the good news: Christ died for us while we were still sinners; that proves God's love toward us. In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven!

John said to the crowds coming out to be baptized by him, "You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath? Produce fruit in keeping with repentance. And do not begin to say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father.' For I tell you that out of these stones God can raise up children for Abraham. The ax is already at the root of the trees, and every tree that does not produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire." "What should we do then?" the crowd asked. John answered, "Anyone who has two shirts should share with the one who has none, and anyone who has food should do the same." Even tax collectors came to be baptized. "Teacher," they asked, "what should we do?" "Don't collect any more than you are required to," he told them. Then some soldiers asked him, "And what should we do?" He replied, "Don't extort money and don't accuse people falsely—be content with your pay." The people were waiting expectantly and were all wondering in their hearts if John might possibly be the Messiah. John answered them all, "I baptize you with water. But one who is more powerful than I will come, the straps of whose sandals I am not worthy to untie. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. His winnowing fork is in his hand to clear his threshing floor and to gather the wheat into his barn, but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire." And with many other words John exhorted the people and proclaimed the good news to them. But when John rebuked Herod the tetrarch because of his marriage to Herodias, his brother's wife, and all the other evil things he had done, Herod added this to them all: He locked John up in prison. When all the people were being baptized, Jesus was baptized too. And as he was praying, heaven was opened and the Holy Spirit descended on him in bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven: "You are my Son, whom I love; with you I am well pleased."

Cozy Soup Sunday

Sunday, January 25th

12:15 PM in Fellowship Hall

Nothing is better than a fellowship lunch of warm hearty soup on a wintry Sunday with family and friends. Plan to attend Calvary's "dish-to-pass" style event. No tickets are required—only a reservation to ensure an accurate head count. Sign up at the table in the hallway outside The Square by January 18th.

The simple menu features warm soups, bread, fruit, and beverages. Bring your own pot of soup to share with others. Not a soup chef? Join us anyway and enjoy the company of family and friends.

Lunch will be served at 12:15 PM. Lori and Tim Mader, with their daughter Carly, will be there to share information about their foundation, Carly's Hope, which offers financial assistance to families for adoption.

Sponsored by the UWF. Contact Sue Weikert (717-315-5441) or Romney Noone (717-652-2875) with questions.
